Alicia Graves promotes community involvement through communication outreach

BLOOMINGTON – Tuesday, March 27, 2007 – Alicia Graves, candidate for City Council in Bloomington's 5th District, has posted a calendar of events (<http://events.AliciaGraves.com>) on her campaign Website, www.AliciaGraves.com.

"In addition to educating voters about my plan for a better Bloomington, I want to provide a public service by letting people know what is going on in Bloomington." Graves, a first-time candidate for elective office, feels that it is important to provide people an opportunity to be involved with their community.

"The internet can be a great networking and informational resource," said Graves. I want to help people, especially those traditionally uninterested in the political process, to utilize that potential to the fullest." Community members are encouraged to send an email to info@AliciaGraves.com about upcoming events they would like to see added as well. Graves would also like to remind the community that they can stay up-to-date on the campaign by signing up for her newsletter online at www.AliciaGraves.com
